JOAQUIN MILLER HIGH SCHOOL

Westward

From city life to wilderness
They pushed across the land.
Across the raging rivers,
Over the burning sand.

Through the uncut forests,
Over towering mountain heights,
With famine, hardship, and disease,
And the lonely days and nights.
Westward they strove with doubt and fear,
Clinging to hopes and dreams.
Surviving as best they could
Through any ways and means.

Leaving behind their homes and friends
They set out to reach their goal;
To blaze a trail to the new land,
No matter what the toll.

West, on a perilous journey,
With patience and courage they went.
Unaware of what lay ahead,
Curious of just what it meant.

They could not have known what the future
Would bring with the passing of time.

Jacqueline Ward, '67

DEDICATION . . .

As the long journey through high school comes to a close, and we begin another into the future, we pause to think about that future and what it holds in store. . . Reflecting on world peace, we wonder what peace means now to those forces fighting and dying in the jungles of Vietnam, helping to shape that peace and worldwide freedom in noble sacrifice.

It is to these honored men and women that we, the Senior Class of 1967, dedicate this annual.

A MESSAGE FROM MR. CLAYTON SHEHORN, PRINCIPAL

When I think of the West I visualize the Westerner and his dream of opportunity. Since the completion of our new buildings, I know that the opportunities for learning and living together are increased ten-fold.

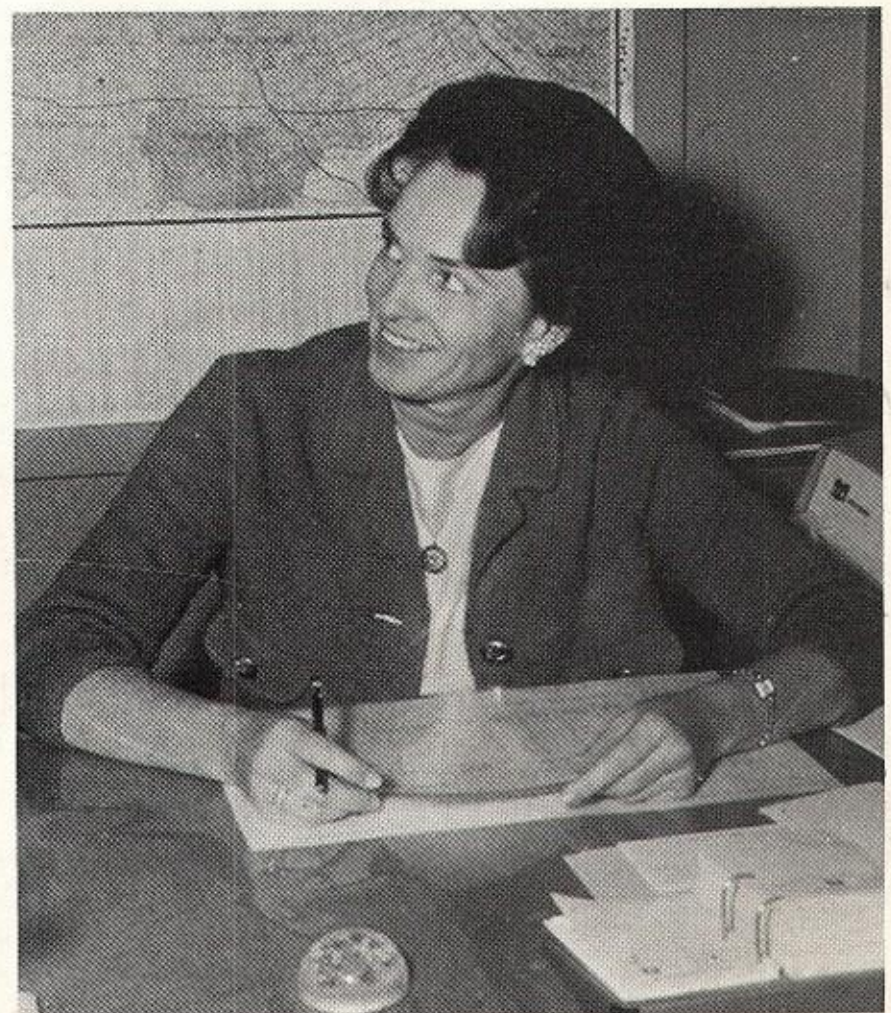

The students and staff will be able now to develop traditions and values so important for good morale. Joaquin Miller High School is now a reality.

GRADUATING CLASS OF 1967

I HEREBY WILL AND BEQUEATH

KAREN ASTRUP

I, Karen Astrup, hereby will and bequeath my locker to Carole Gingo and luck to everyone.

FRANK BUIRGY

I, Frank Buirgy, will my locker to Mark Hechter, my books to Alan Monte, and all my used folders to Gretchen Klain. I would like to say thanks to everyone who helped to make this a successful and wonderful four years for me.

JAMES GLENN

I, James Glenn, having successfully defended myself for the past four years against all attempts by teachers to improve me, will to Mark Hechter my seat in Mr. Curry's Math class (with all the answers stuck under the desk); to Carole Gingo I leave one Rick Nelson record which I'm sure she will keep safely under her pillow. To Gene Baily I leave my one guitar string (sorry I broke the others.) To my teachers I leave one beautiful Merri Ann Taylor to keep their rooms bright and cheerful.

RITA HAAS

I, Rita Haas, will all to Mark Hechter and Marcus Torres. I leave my History papers and notes and some of the knowledge in them. To Barbara Read, I leave my old desk in Rm 9; to Kathy Warren I leave my job in Rm 12; to Allen Monte I leave my wit; to Alison Salo I leave all my old English papers.

WILLIAM HOFFMAN

I, William Hoffman, being of reasonable sound mind and body, hereby will and bequeath my SUPER C.P. to Danny Luker so he will be just as great as I am. To Mr. Curry I will my red jacket so that he will be just as great a bullfighter as I am. To Howard Taylor I will my great personality so he will be as good a president as I have been. To Mr. Stoy I give my briefcase so he can wander through the halls feeling important.

LARRY JACOBSON

I, Larry Jacobson, being of totally unsound mind, will my books to Terry Rising, my locker to Jerry French, my wheelchair to Brian Dunne, my old test papers to George Hollimon, who hopes he may be promoted some day. The study hall I will to Jackie Ward, and my sick corny jokes to Mr. Curry.

JOYCE LAMAGNA

I, Joyce Lamagna, will my locker to Larry LeQuatte; and to Carolyn Miller, I will a peace treaty and my canes in hope that some day she'll use them. My thanks to everyone who helped to make this a successful and wonderful four years for me.

MARY ELLEN LUGO

I, Mary Ellen Lugo, will and bequeath my locker to Carole Gingo and good luck to everyone.

*Lots of Luck to a real swell girl
Dave Blagg*

ARCADIANS

JULIUS MELTON

I, Butch Melton, being of reasonably sound mind, hereby will and bequeath my locker to George Hollimon; and to Mr. Curry the reminder that I have been here. I leave the best of luck in the future to the students that will follow.

CAROLYN MILLER

I, Carolyn Miller, will and bequeath my locker to Linda Vangieson; my books to Barbara Read; my laughter to Mona Bernstein; and all my efforts and thanks to Joyce Lamagna.

SANDRA MORRIS

I, Sandra Morris, being of reasonably sound mind, will and bequeath my locker to Emily Gruden, since she knows the combination any way; my old government books and tests to Bruce Palmer, and my C.A.P. books to Mr. Curry. Good luck to all future Seniors and thanks to the Administration for being so nice.

WENDE RITTER

I, Wende Ritter, will and bequeath my locker to Mona Bernstein; my math and history books to Linda Vangieson; and my thanks to everyone for giving me a nice stay at Miller.

RUDY SIORDIA

I, Rudy Siordia, will and bequeath all my books to Tommy Weston and my locker to Terry Rising.

JACKIE WARD

I, Jackie Ward, being of almost sound body and mind, will and bequeath all my lunch trays to Jesse Sherman; my very unused government books to George Hollimon (if he ever makes it that far); all possible help to Jane Naes, and my old poems to Mr. Curry. To the rest of the school I leave my best wishes.

TINA WARD

I, Tina Ward, will and bequeath my quietness to Jane Naes so that she won't be kicked out of class; to Terry Rising the hope that he will soon recognize the color orange.
